

lucrative property prices

Are you selling land for development or a property in a good location?

Then you have come to the right place.

Property purchase | From the initial vision to the finished project.

Raiffeisen WohnBau sees itself as a developer for independently financed housing within the Raiffeisen Banking Group Austria. The brand stands for high-quality residential buildings in selected locations and classic property or investor projects. Raiffeisen WohnBau is constantly looking for new properties for the implementation of our innovative ideas and the development of unique construction projects. We will gladly check the development potential of your property and provide you with a price indication.

Our current search profile in detail:

- Location: Properties in attractive locations in Vienna, Innsbruck and other provincial capitals as well as the respective surrounding municipalities; hotspots such as Kitzbühel, Velden, St. Wolfgang or similar areas
- Size: from approx. 1.000 m² usable living space
- Property type: apartment buildings and existing or undeveloped real estate

We will gladly check the development potential of your property and give you a price indication.

We have been operating as successful real estate developers for many years and utilize the extensive real estate know-how that we have acquired in the realization of more than 2,000 independently financed apartments. An overview of the current housing projects can be found at www.raiffeisen-wohnbau.at
